

Curtis Lee "Curt" Varner

July 12, 2014

Curtis Lee "Curt" Varner, age 61, rode his final wave to the other shore July 12, 2014 after a very brief illness. Curt lived in Tallahassee for 26 years. He had thirty-six years of service with HCA, and twenty-six years of service with Capital Regional Medical Center, where he was the Director for Respiratory Therapy. His greatest pride and love of his life was his family, his wife and children. Known for his kind, non-judgmental encouragement and positive words, his mission was to always make someone's day or experience better. He was everyone's definition of a "gentle man". Curt's love of the outdoors included all things beach and ocean - surfing, canoeing, kayaking, swimming and fishing. He loved observing wildlife, hiking and camping. He was an adventurous traveler. Curt was a member of Killeran United Methodist Church. Survivors include his wife, Joan Varner; son, Scott Varner of St. Petersburg; daughter, Lindsey Varner of Jacksonville. A celebration of life service will be held 12 noon, Thursday, July 17 at the Carriage House at Goodwood Museum & Gardens, 1600 Miccosukee Road, Tallahassee. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the Coral Restoration Foundation - www.coralrestoration.org. Susie Mozolic of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. (www.bevisfh.com – 850-385-2193)

“ Joan and Family. I am so sorry for yours and our community's loss. How, Why will never adequately be answered... Indeed a Gentle Man..., always and Forever Mr. Positive. I remember him questioning wanting to go to Jacksonville to surf an upcoming storm.... May I one day be so daring and willing to step to the edge.... Curt embraced life and drank the deep draught.... A kindred spirit whom we will join across the sandbar to catch that perfect wave, or on a celestial court to hit the perfect serve..... Richard Carroll and Family

“ Joan, I'm sorry we've lost contact over the years and was very sad to read Curt's obituary in today's paper. Please know you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Curt was the role model of what a true "Friend" is. He was always willing to help, listen and was a wealth of information. I honestly believe he helped and guided more people personally and professionally than we will ever know. My thoughts and prayers are with Joan and family, friends. We have lost a incredible man but heaven gained a one-of-a-kind Angel.
