“ I'm still in shock that you are gone. I remember you picking me up for school in that mustang and how cool we thought we were when Vicky would let us ride with her in that green gto on Friday nights. So many good times with both of you. You were a great friend, mom and grandma. You will be missed. Prayers for all your family.

“ I met Cindy in 2005 at Capital Regional Medical Center. She and I became very close friends and I couldn't have asked for a better friend. We had many busy, hilarious, adventurous nights in labor and delivery. We also shared countless memories together outside work. As I think of her, I see her smile and I feel her warm, caring, generous heart. I will never forget her and always love her. Love Crystal Brinson
