

Dale Brown

January 23, 1941 - December 18, 2017

Dale Brown, 76, passed away on the morning of December 18, 2017, in her room at Westminster Oaks, where she had resided for the past nine years. She is finally at peace after a brave and courageous struggle with Alzheimer's Disease.

She was born January 23, 1941, in Savannah, GA. She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles B. Brooks and Margaret Brooks. Dale is survived by her daughter, Toni Wright Myers (Tallahassee), and son, James Wright (Atlanta). A memorial service will be held 11:00 a.m. Monday, January 22, 2018 at Bevis Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations in her name to Big Bend Hospice, 1723 Mahan Center Blvd., Tallahassee, FL 32308 which helped her and her family in her final days. Susie Mozolic of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. (www.bevisfh.com 850-385-2193)

We remember meeting Dale when she lived at Georgia Bell Apartments. I would often eat in the dining room with my mother-in-law who also lived there, and I would see Dale across the room with her friends. She looked so happy and talkative. We continued to see Dale after she moved to Westminster Oaks and made friends there too. She was a sweet lady, and our thoughts are with Toni and Jim.

I'm glad I got to know your mom, Toni. I love the picture of her at the desk. She spent a lot of time tapping her foot and enjoying Elvis music. She got lots of hugs and kisses sitting there- by all the nurses that loved her.
