After years of guidance thru his church family, we feel certain, our Lord was waiting to welcome Dan to his final resting place in Heaven. Danny's dog Pooh Bear could not walk the road without him, he also died peacefully the following Saturday morning. “ Uncle Dan, I Will miss Ur laugh and your sense of humor. I remember all the times we spent talking about life, struggles and things. You are at peace now with Grandma and Granddaddy Griffin and Wayne. There is no more pain or suffering, only perfect peace now. In my career, I have dealt with death in the most horrendous ways. But when it is someone in your family, it hits home. Take care my friend and enjoy eternal peace from this world that is full of problems, strife, hate and destruction. God bless you and I Will see you again under better circumstances.

“Daddy, I love you and I know you are smiling bigger than ever, bc now you can see your little girls and watch over us everyday,as you always wanted to. I cant tell you enough how I hope you heard everything that Cathy and I said to you that day you took your last breath as we stood by your side. Although you couldn't speak to us we heard you Daddy. I believe in alot of sayings when someone you love so close just simply can't go on without their loved one that passed, and Daddy I believe POOHBEAR knew exactly when you left, bc you have him rt there with you now. Bless his heart he was truely mans best friend. YOURS INDEED... I love you and im going to miss that laugh of yours , that was one thing Cathy and I wished we could have heard one more time, besides hi girls, I sure love you girls, which we knew, but you fought long enough and it was just time to take that next step. So do me a favor Daddy, hello, to Grandma, and Grandaddy, and Meemaw, n Pops, and to my nephew Derrick, and of course the one true love in my life Jonathan Littlefield. So rest Daddy its time you start living the good life, we will see you one day again, im positive. I love you Daddy... love your Terri Lynn,your babygirl.
