“ I've known Dan for a 36 years. I first met him at a gas station when I nearly ran over him he stepped off of the curb, he blamed it on me, of course but what he said was it's a good thing you're pretty because you sure can't drive and we've been friends ever since. He introduced me to my first contemporary Christian music, jars of Clay and third day. To this day, third day is still my favorite. He taught me a lot about the Lord. He helped me to understand the Bible. I have many many memories with him and his family. Like the trip to Cozumel years ago. I would take nothing for these memories. He will be missed and I will always remember him. I know and I know and I know that I will see him in heaven one day. Rest in peace my friend

“ A million memories made in this lifetime with you Dan. As children, we shared so many family gatherings playing with toys, in ditches and puddles, pools and beaches. We rode bikes and climbed trees. Had sleepovers and parties. I watched you play football, and went to church with you. As we grew older we shared a zillion laughs and secrets, and even shed some tears. We traded cars, and went out dancing and drinking. We hung out and attended concerts from Clearwater and StPete, to Lakeland and Orlando. You picked up a guitar and played the piano. We sang songs and grew up with the best music ever. Distance never was an issue. We remained cousins and friends throughout the years. I watched you crash and burn, and I saw you grow and dream. Cuz, we had a hell of a ride. Your turn on this merry-go-round may be over, but our times together are not. I'll see you again some day in God's Kingdom and we'll pick up where we left off, just like we always do. So save me a seat next to you and Bobito on that Gravitron ride, 'cause we have more sharing and laughing to do. Love you always Danny. Your Chez.
