“ Glen and Dee Dee Adcock would like to express our condolences to the family of David Cox. Dee Dee and Glen had the pleasure of working with David Cox at the federal courthouse in Tallahassee. I have to say that David was a strong willed man when he talked to you and told you something, you could usually take that to the bank. One of the expressions that he had, that he told me more than once “ if I told you that weevil can pick cotton you can get him a croaker sack” A comedian that he really enjoyed and laughed about a lot, was Roy de Mercer, he and I both laughed about that a great deal, some of his jokes. David always took his job seriously, but he did have a softer side to him and I will miss him. Rest in peace David.

“ David and I were friends all through high school and graduated together in 1963 from Leon high school, Tallahassee, Florida. We enjoyed some happy days at mutt and Jeff’s and also shared graduation night with friends at Panama City Beach. He was one of the most honest and loyal high school friends I had. We palled around a while after high school but, eventually lost touch. I am very sad of the news of his passing. I extend my sympathy to his family during this difficult time. May he rest in peace.
