

Dawn Rachelle Hoover

November 16, 1969 - January 31, 2015

The following poem was written for Dawn Hoover by Carl Wooten

Dawn a new beginning
The start of every day
The sign from God that tells us
Get up get on your way

The signal to the birds
Get up and sing your song
The music of this earth
That helps us move along

The warmth for every creature
The life of plants and trees
The beauty of a sunny day
She made for you and me

So early in the morning
As you stretch and yawn
Step out and see the wonder
Of a blessing we call Dawn

“ I am so sorry to hear about Dawn, Dan and I just found out today from Mr. Hoover. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Dawn was one of a kind and can never be replaced. She was always there for me whenever I needed someone to talk to or a shoulder to cry on. She was one of the people who helped me get through my Grandmothers death. She was very special to me and my family even though we lost touch over the last years she will always have a special place in my heart. My love goes out to Danny, Donna (Little D) and Rhett as well as the rest of the family.

“ Dawn is and will always be my best friend. She let me cry when I needed to and made me laugh when I needed to in the most darkest times. I will miss your beautiful smile but will never forget it. I love you so much and always will. Lisa
