

Deborah Wright Hartley

August 10, 1956 - August 29, 2012

Deborah Wright Hartley, 56, of Tallahassee, passed away on Wednesday, August 29, 2012.

Deborah was born in Yokusuka, Japan and had most recently lived in Tallahassee since 2002. She grew up in Tallahassee and would graduate from Maclay, FSU, and TCC School of Nursing. She was a post operative care nurse at TMH and was very respected by her peers for her caring heart and professionalism.

Deborah was also a member of All Saints Anglican Church in Tallahassee where she was a member of the prayer team and Kairos Outside Prison Ministry. She was a woman of deep faith who left this world in peace.

Deborah was also an avid "tent camper" and kayaker. She thoroughly enjoyed kayaking the Wacissa River.

Survivors include her two daughters, Amanda Hartley(Lee Slaughter) of Seattle, WA; and Anna Hartley(Mason Poole) of Paris, France; two sisters, Martha Billings of Tallahassee; and Patricia Watson(Bill) of Defuniak Springs; one brother, Kenneth Wright(Cindy) of Columbia, MO; one granddaughter, Henrietta Hartley; numerous nieces; nephews; great nieces; and her lifelong friend and Sister in Christ, Mother Travis Boline.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Lt. Col. D.J. Wright and Dr. Barbara K. Wright.

A memorial is scheduled for 10:00am, Monday, September 3rd at the All Saints Anglican Church in Tallahassee. Memorials may be made to the Deborah Hartley Memorial Fund c/o All Saints Anglican Church, 3840 North Monroe St. Unit 303 Tallahassee, FL 32303(Huntington Oaks Plaza). The fund is dedicated to provide support to cancer patients. Bevis Funeral Home(850.385.2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is handling arrangements. The family would like to extend heartfelt gratitude for the loving care Deborah received at the TMH Cancer Center.
