

Diane Carter Williamson

November 8, 1956 - June 9, 2016

Diane Carter Williamson, daughter and sister passed away June 9, 2016. Diane was born November 8, 1956 and was a lifelong resident of Tallahassee. Diane worked for the Morrison Corporation and later at Tallahassee Memorial Hospital. She enjoyed square dancing with the Tallahassee Twirlers. She later loved dancing with the Gangsta Grannies at Allegro. Diane enjoyed each and every day with her extended family at Allegro and served on the Allegro Residents Council and Welcome Committee. She was also a member of the Bells of Allegro and Garden Club. Diane was a faithful volunteer at Tallahassee Memorial Hospital for many years. She is survived by her father Joseph R. Williamson, sister Susan Aaron (Charlie), their two sons, Michael and Carter, brother Keyes Williamson (Melissa) and sons Elliot and Logan, and a special aunt Mary Louise Richey. Diane was preceded in death by her mother Norma Lee Williamson, her aunt Diane Keyes Mathews, and her uncle John Williamson, her grandparents Joseph C. and Fay Williamson, Walter E. and Eppie Keyes. The family would like to thank the staff at Tallahassee Memorial Hospital Cardiac ICU for their care and support and this was the floor where Diane had volunteered. Memorial contributions can be made to a charity of choice.
