“ So very sad to learn of Jack’s passing. I served alongside the then Lt Cdr Jack Capra in Basra, Iraq, in 2004. He was energetic and upbeat about everything in life, he certainly brightened some difficult days. Gone to soon, RIP Jack

“ I met Jack at a Walden University PhD Residency in Orlando and in time became his dissertation advisor. I was immediately impressed with him. The news of his passing stunned me, as I only learned of it on January 2, 2023. I am saddened and offer my sincere condolences to his family.

“ I haven’t seen Jack in over 20 years since he left Vero Beach, but he is the kind of person that you feel like you know, that you love and that you call your friend. He was witty, fun, happy, kind, smart, full of life and dedicated to public service. I am sad to hear about his passing but will forever remember him and his smiling face, he could light up a room and can’t begin to imagine or count all of his numerous and wonderful contributions to so many causes while he was here on earth as a good and faithful servant! I pray that his family savors the happy memories! RIP Jack and sending my prayers and sincere sympathy and condolences to all of his family. And thank you for posting his service!!!

“ I am honored to say that my family met Jack many years ago through the McWilliams. Jack welcomed us with open arms and always treated us like family, We became all part of an extended family because Jack is Ashton’s godfather and my husband and I are Sarah’s godparents.

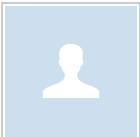

We all know of Jack’s amazing accomplishments but I wanted to write to say “thank you” for some things that I never took the opportunity to say to Jack directly:

Thank you for taking the time to chat with me about obscure legal stuff during a busy social evening. I appreciated it.

Thank you for chatting with my son about anything he was interested in at the time. He respected you and it meant a lot.

Thank you for elevating the profession of law that is most near and dear to my heart. You will always be remembered. ❤️

“ I worked with Cap'n Jack at NMPS San Diego, CA. He had just returned from the desert and was "on hold" waiting to demobilize and go home.

During his time at NMPS, Cap'n Jack (he was a Commander then) assisted us in many ways (he was a JAG Officer and a darn good one!). I'll never forget the times I would approach him with problems with some of the other "med hold" sailors returning from the desert. I was responsible for mustering and providing personnel services to over 130 "med hold" patients and Cap'n Jack would listen to me each and every time I would ask him a question and more times than not, he would stop by to see how I was doing. Even though he was a senior officer (he made Captain while at NMPS, hence I compared him to "Cap'n Jack Sparrow from the books (before the movies)). He got a kick out of that! I will personally miss him like crazy!! He was first and foremost a friend and mentor, but he was also a Naval Officer. He never once reminded me he was an officer! He was the kind of guy who you could go to with your problems and he would do everything he could to help you!

Godspeed to you Cap'n Jack! You will be missed! My most deepest condolences to his wife and children!!

“ Jack was my best friend, my Sigma Chi brother, and my Best Man (not just in the wedding sense, but in every sense of the word).

He is also Godfather to my first born daughter, Ashton.

We are indissolubly linked forever!

Few people on this earth have accomplished what he has in a life too short, as is self-evident by his wonderfully stated obituary.

He cared deeply for his family, brothers, friends, fellow servicemen, and career colleagues.

My entire families' hearts ache for Sandi, Rebecca, Ryan, Taylor, Lexi, his sisters and relatives; as well as his Sigma Chi brothers, and all of those who loved him, which are too numerous to count.

I am proud and honored that Jack was part of all of our lives.

Godspeed to us all, because this life will never be the same without Jack Capra. Until we meet again in the next, my Best Man!
