“ Donna was a person that anyone would enjoy being around. She truly loved her family. To her loved ones I leave this poem by Jamey Wysocki...

I Am Learning How To Live

*I am learning how to live
In a new way
Since that day
You were taken away.*

*I am learning how to live
With the things left unsaid
Knowing I got to say them
With every tear that I shed.*

*I am learning how to live
By embracing the pain
Knowing that you live on
Through the memories that remain.*

*I am learning how to live
Knowing I will never again see your face
And I have peace knowing
You're in a better place.*

*I am learning how to live
Knowing you're in God's care
It gives me the strength to move on
And makes the pain much easier to bear....*

Godspeed Donna with your new journey with the Lord. Wish we had stayed in contact after our retirements. Deborah Allen

“ Donna was truly a blessing and as her former Pastor she was a true asset to the Kingdom and the community as she worked endless hours in the food pantry and other ministries. May we all be comforted to know she has now graduated and is in the presence of her Lord and Savior. Well done thy Good and Faithful Servant!

“ I have so many wonderful fun memories of Donna. She was one of my few best friends. Always there for me when I needed her. I loved her laugh and enjoyed talking to her, working with her and everything about her. I don't think I ever heard her say anything bad about anyone. She greeted everyone with that beautiful smile. Sometimes we would go to the mall during our lunch hour, somehow find time to shop and eat and get back to work in time. (If I had the energy now for those mall runs. lol.) And sometimes Frank would come and pick us up for lunch in one of his current old cars. I loved those lunch trips and always curious what the next car would be. If it weren't for her and you girls babysitting Jarrod for me one night, I may not have met Mike, my wonderful husband. I'm going to miss her and regret that I didn't take more time to call, keep in touch and visit. She and Frank were so cute together and so much in love. And she loved you girls beyond words and she was and IS so proud of y'all. When she talked about y'all and your daddy she just beamed with pride and love. I can see her and hear her telling me things y'all had been up to and how proud she was and how much she loved y'all. She will always be with you all, in your hearts and memories and she is watching over you from Heaven. She was a wonderful wonderful friend, wife and mother and I was very fortunate to have known her and have her in my life. May God give you comfort. My prayers are forever with you and your families. Love you all

“ I will never forget our beach trips and car shows, dressing up in poodle skirts...those were the days...You are one of a kind and will never be forgotten!

“ I was such a momma' s girl I would cry at the door if she left me at home until she returned. I would sneak into her room and sleep next to her, (well past the appropriate age), and she would rub my back until I fell asleep.

What I would do to lay with her and rub hers...

When I think of Donna, Its almost as if I can hear her voice and her laugh, I will never forget!
