

Dorcas Louise Ellis

September 29, 1941 - May 22, 2017

The family will have a private service at a later date.

Tribute Wall

AF

“ Angie Fienemann lit a candle in memory of Dorcas Louise Ellis

Angie Fienemann - May 25, 2017 at 08:46 AM

AF

Aunt Dot...

Was an amazing woman, she loved deeply - cared earnestly - and would tell you the truth in a way only she could do. If she did not agree with you - she would say "Well... Now - I don't agree with you about this or that... She was straight with you whether you liked it or not. That was Very Commendable of her with the way the world is today> and we should all follow her legacy.> Honesty, Loving, Caring, Kind > what more could I say... It's who she was and will be again in the Earth Made New.

I Loved Her Here, and I will see Her There.

Be at Peace extended family of mine> Be at Peace.

*I Love You All,
Angie Barfield Fienemann*

Angie Fienemann - May 25, 2017 at 09:12 AM

SP

My sister Dot was one of a kind.

She had learned and practiced:

That there is peace with forgiveness*

Love for the loveable and the unloveable is what God tries to develop in each of us*

Truth is truth--Black and Gray are not truth.*

Earn your own way; don't sponge.*

Do your best; that is what counts.*

Oh, how I will miss my sister.

Mary Sue Piper

Sue Piper - May 27, 2017 at 06:06 AM

LP

The first time I remember meeting my aunt Dot was a trip to Florida. We were meeting relatives in Florida. I think I might of been about 4 or 5. All the relatives we met were nice but when it came to stopping at Aunt Dots house it was awesome. As we walked into her house and around a bit I noticed a trampoline. That was very cool. She was an awesome Aunt and I will miss her. I posted a saying on Facebook that I saw on Little house on the prairie I think Aunt Dot would approve

REMEMBER ME "Remember me with smiles and laughter, / For that's the way I'll remember you all. / If you can only remember me with tears, / Then don't remember me at all."

Larkin Adele Piper

Larkin Piper - May 27, 2017 at 05:06 PM

ES

It's hard for me to tell the family what's in my heart, but I'll try. I met Dot in 1984 at Capital Health Plan where we both were employed. She was my first friend there. Dot took me under her "wing" not just at work, but in life. She introduced me to the wonders of the mountains in Tennessee and North Carolina. She took me with her to many concerts, near and far. She shared stories about the love she had for her sons, grandsons, granddaughters, and even great granddaughters & grandsons. I felt like her family was my family too through her words. Dot spoke often of her sisters, Lenore and Mary Sue, and her brother John with love they probably didn't realize how deep. We talked for many many hours and still found things to chat about. Tears don't tell how empty I feel knowing that I can't talk with her again in this life. But I will see her again. She loved Jesus and she showed me her Christian walk. I am a much better person for having known a woman named, Dot Ellis.

Ethel Stokley Spears - May 31, 2017 at 01:23 PM