

Doris Weber Parkhurst

September 15, 1924 - June 3, 2018

Doris Weber Parkhurst, 93 of Tallahassee, passed away Sunday, June 3, 2018 at Westminster Oaks. Doris was born on September 15, 1924 in Cumberland, Maryland to Frank and Ruth Weber.

Doris graduated from Fisher College in Boston, MA. While working in the medical field in Philadelphia, she met her husband, Leonard W. Parkhurst M.D. She was active as a volunteer for the Pennsylvania Hospital and twice chaired the Pennsylvania Hospital Days. They lived in Philadelphia until 1971 when they moved to Tallahassee in order to raise their two children in a smaller community. She worked with her husband, who was an allergist in Tallahassee, until his death in 1987. Doris was an avid reader and a wonderful cook, who enjoyed traveling the world.

She was predeceased by her husband, Leonard W. Parkhurst M.D., her parents and her brother, Frank Weber. She is survived by her daughter, Susan Parkhurst Gwynn (George), her son, Leonard W. Parkhurst, Jr. (Mary), and her grandchildren, who she loved dearly: Mary Carson Gwynn, Emily Gwynn Frank (Bobby), Anne Gwynn and Michael Parkhurst.

A special thanks of appreciation to the staff at Westminster Oaks for the kind and loving care during the final year of her life, and for the care provided by Big Bend Hospice.

Following a private burial on Tuesday, June 12th, the family will receive friends at the home of Susan & George Gwynn, 803 Lake Ridge Drive from 4:00 PM until 7PM.
