

Doris Johnson Sharp

July 14, 1928 - October 29, 2016

Doris Johnson Sharp died October 29, 2016, age 88, at Westminster Oaks, Tallahassee, Florida. A memorial service will be held Monday, November 7 at two o'clock in the afternoon, Frances Chapel, Westminster Oaks.

Doris Sharp, born July 14, 1928 in Daytona Beach, Florida, to Mamie Terry and William C. Johnson. She grew up in Miami and graduated from Miami High in 1947. Doris graduated from Florida State University in 1951 with a major in Spanish Education and married Raymond Sharp, also in 1951. As the spouse of an Air Force Officer, Doris lived and traveled with her family, daughters Terry and Sandy, in many parts of the US, Panama Canal Zone and Germany. Doris and Ray traveled extensively in Europe and the US following Ray's retirement. Doris made many friends over the years and relocated from Apalachicola, Florida to Tallahassee in 1998, where she resided in Westminster Oaks. She enjoyed playing bridge and late in life attended bingo regularly.

Doris was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church, Phi Mu Fraternity and the Anna Jackson Chapter of the UDC.

Doris is survived by her spouse of 65 years, Raymond V. Sharp, daughters Terry Sharp Durden (Andrew), and Sandra Sharp White (Charles), grandchildren Dianne Durden Bray, Julie Durden Grier, Justin C. White, Matthew B. White and four great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to St. John's Episcopal Church, 211 N. Monroe Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32301 or Big Bend

Hospice, 1723 Mahan Center Blvd., Tallahassee, Florida 32308.

“ Doris was a favorite cousin of mine. She was a true Southern Lady. My daughter, who is in her 30's, remembers the 'soft book' she made by hand for her as small child. She walks with the angels.
