“ I miss my Aunt Dot. We talked every day. First thing in the morning and the last thing at night. I would tell her about what I did and she would tell me about her day. Towards the end she wasn't doing very much because, as she would say, "I'm was weary today" so she didn't do much. She had two very good people, friends I would say, Melinda and Derry. Without them I don't know what she would have done. I began visiting Aunt Dot after her daughter Ellen passed away and it just developed into a great friendship over the years. I came down to visit 3 or 4 times a year for a week when we would play either canasta or her famous kings in the corner. We had lots of fun talking, laughing and playing our cards. Time well spent. I'll miss my special times with Aunt Dot but know only too well how tired she was and how ready she was to go be With her family in heaven. Please know I love you and will miss you always.
