

E. Ann Ennis

March 12, 1936 - November 26, 2017

Elizabeth Ann Mays Ennis passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family on November 26, 2017. Ann was born in Newberry, South Carolina on March 12, 1936, to Benjamin Franklin Mays and Olis Smith Mays. She is survived by her husband, William Brome Ennis, their daughters Erin (Brad Hollis), Laura Turco (Michael), and Betsy Ennis-Short (Jeff). She was blessed with four grandchildren, Leslee Boldman (Dan), Alden Enlow, Cody Short (Taylor Anne) and Madison Short, as well as two great-grandchildren, Sarah Boldman and Ben Boldman. Ann attended the Greenville General Nursing School in South Carolina. She met Bill, a Clemson student, on a blind date in December, 1954, when they went to the drive-in movie "How to Marry a Millionaire." They married in Newberry, South Carolina on December 23, 1956. After Bill's time in the Army, they lived in New York and Alabama, eventually settling with their children in Orlando, Florida. She enjoyed her career as a nurse and worked in Employee Health for Martin Marietta and Florida Hospital. Bill and Ann moved to Tallahassee in 2001 to be close to their children and grandchildren. Ann continued to work part-time in employee health for Tallahassee Memorial Healthcare and retired in 2011.

Friends are invited to attend a Celebration of Life at 4:00 PM on Wednesday, November 29 at Bevis Funeral Home at 200 John Knox Road, and to a reception following the service at the home of Erin Ennis and Brad Hollis. The family requests, in lieu of flowers, contributions be made to the Tallahassee

Memorial Foundation for the Rehabilitation Center or Big Bend Hospice. Susie Mozolic of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. (www.bevisfh.com 850-385-2193)

“ When I think of Ann...I think of her laughing. She made everyone who was around her laugh. I remember meetings at their house planning something for youth group. Of course I remember Bill and Erin & Laura & Betsy each in a separate special way. I have missed all of you. Last saw Laura at our church (Spring of Life UMC).....wish you would come again. Sending prayers for His peace that passes understanding for all of you.

“ I'm so sorry to hear this sad news. Mrs. Ennis was so sweet and kind. It was fun getting to know Laura's family when we were next door neighbors in Orlando. I always felt that there was something special about the Ennis family. Sending love and light.....Pam and Tom Turner
