

Edith "Edie" Jenkins Goding

December 5, 1946 - January 4, 2024

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Edith Jenkins Goding. Edie was a 6th generation Tallahasseean who never met a stranger. She was gregarious, funny and exuded Southern Charm.

Edie was a loving mother and devoted grandmother. She was a retiree of the State of Florida, with over 20 years in the Office of Insurance Regulation. In her off time she loved cooking, spending time with her animals and being entertained by her grandson.

Edie was the daughter of Bob and Emily Jenkins. She is survived by her sisters Mary Jane Rudd and Jennie Sampson, her sons David Ashwell, Jr. and Brad Ashwell, her daughters-in-laws Sylvia Ashwell and Stephanie Johnson, her grandson Isaac Ashwell-Johnson and her niece Amy Sampson.

Edie died with tremendous dignity and courage after being diagnosed with cancer. May she rest in peace.

There will be no public service just a small family gathering. In place of flowers, the family asks that you please donate to Big Bend Hospice. Todd Wahlquist is assisting the family with their arrangements (850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com).

“ So sorry to hear this sad news. Edie and I worked together for many years. She was such a delightful person and I know she will be sorely missed.

“ Edie was my good friend from Department of insurance. We worked right next to each other. My heart is so heavy right now. During her illness, we talked often and I would always pray for her. She was such an amazing loving person. She spoke often of her grandson Isaac. I will really miss our conversations. Edie I know you are now in the arms of Jesus. Sleep on and I love you. I will never forget you

We were Edie's neighbors for many years. We grew to love she and Dave early on when we first moved next door. She was always friendly and caring, pleasant to everyone. Never met a stranger and cared equally for all of her neighbors, family, and friends. Always ready to help when she could on neighborhood projects, she was easily my favorite neighbor in a land of great neighbors. Edie will be missed terribly and loved forever. May GOD rest her soul.

Godspeed dear lady,
Tim Scott
