

Edna Faye Harris Bowdoin

April 14, 1944 - March 23, 2021

Edna Faye Harris Bowdoin (76) passed away on March 23, 2021 in Quincy, Florida where she has called home for over 50 years. She was popularly known as “Faye” through her Quincy-based florist shop, Faye's Florist.

Faye was born on April 14, 1944 to parents Byrd and Rhoda Selman in Brewton, Alabama. She later moved to Quincy in 1969 and attended Christian Heritage Church of Tallahassee, currently known as All Nations Church. Despite the labor of owning and operating Faye Harris Florist, she was passionate about her craft and considered floristry a hobby that she very much enjoyed. Faye is also humorously remembered for her love of the Home Shopping Network and QVC.

Faye is survived by Andy Bowdoin; loving son George F. Harris, III (Judy); son James Hammac; grandchildren Will Harris (Rachel), Bobby Shiver (Mara), Crystal Jordan (Joshua), and James Dean; great-grandchildren Silas, Olivia Faye, McKenzie, Malaina, Creedence, Saira, Liam, Logan, and Luna; brother Sonny Selman. She was preceded in death by the father of her children: George F. Harris, Jr.

“ Mrs. Edna Faye Bowdoin was a long time Christian/PT Employer friend of mines for over twenty five years plus. My mother who has gone to heaven since December 26, 1995 worked for her as well, cleaning her house. My heart has ached for her since I received the news the day after her demised. She loved God, her husband Mr. Andy and was truly devoted to her son, George and family. I will miss her calls and friendship. Rest Well Mrs. Faye, a friend who loved in spite of, at All times, that was you and me. Until, Good night, Love you, see you in the morning!
