

Edward Arthur Botting

March 6, 1951 - July 15, 2018

Edward “Yank” Arthur Botting, age 67, passed away on July 15, 2018 at home. He was born on March 6, 1951 in Charlestown, Massachusetts. Ed grew up in West Roxbury, MA and graduated from Catholic Memorial High School in Boston, MA. He was named a 32° Prince of the Royal Secret of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry in 1978 and arrived in Bristol soon thereafter.

Ed was a family man and was heavily involved in the Bristol community he so loved, serving for years in Telecommunications, Emergency Medical Services, Law Enforcement, City Council, and a stint as Mayor of Bristol.

He loved to ride and tinker with his motorcycle, was an avid fan of science fiction and horror films, and enjoyed his dogs, boating, paintball, bowling, poker runs, building computers, discussing politics, and drinking coffee on the front porch with Kattie.

He is survived by his children; Heather Botting, sons, Christian Botting and Edward Botting, stepsons, Trampus Johnson and Travis Johnson, seven grandchildren; and many other family members and friends. He was preceded in death by his wife of 38 years, Kattie, as well as his parents Catherine and Arthur, and his sister Nancy.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the American Cancer Society. Scotti Barden is assisting the Botting family with their arrangements.
