“ Dear Howard and Family,
It is with great sadness that I learned of Marie's passing. She was a few years ahead of me at FLHS where we both played clarinet in the band. The marching band shows were repeated every 4 years so we both were in the same shows but not at the same time. I first met Marie when she was newly married and we were next door neighbors when Dale and Susan were born, She gave me a baby shower for my first baby. We became true friends and shared much in those "early days". It was great to see Marie and Howard 3 years ago and we hoped for more visits in NC. She was strong in her Christian faith and I look forward to seeing her in heaven.
Sincere Sympathy,
Sandra Dunham
