

Emily Hatcher Landreth

December 18, 1941 - July 2, 2024

Emily Hatcher Landreth passed away on July 2nd, 2024 at Westminster Oaks in Tallahassee, FL.

Emily was born December 18, 1941, in Knoxville, TN, to Charles U. Hatcher and Edith Jodelle Hatcher. She was a graduate of Treadwell High School, Memphis, TN. She attended Rhodes College where she was a member of the KD Sorority. She later graduated from Florida State University in Tallahassee, FL. Emily had a career as a mathematics teacher in Tallahassee, teaching at Leon High School, Godby High School, and Tallahassee Community College for nearly 40 years.

After retiring from teaching, Emily worked part-time for H&R Block, where she took great joy in hearing life stories and guiding clients through the practical math of tax preparation.

Emily was famously frugal but was generous with her time and committed to friendships lasting decades. Her friends have known her for a very long time. She was a member of First Presbyterian Church (Tallahassee) for over 50 years. She served in many ways in the church and was a regular counter of the worship offering. She played the piano, learning the instrument as a child from her mother who was a church organist. A bridge foursome was always on her calendar and was one of her favorite ways to socialize.

She is survived by her brother Buddy Hatcher and wife Catherine, Knoxville, TN; two sons Greg Landreth, Tallahassee, FL, and Charlie Landreth and wife Andi Williams, Brevard, NC; and grandchildren Noah and Celia Landreth, Brevard, NC.

A memorial service will be held at First Presbyterian Church in Tallahassee, FL on Friday, July 12, 2024 at 1:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the First Presbyterian Preschool at 110 N. Adams St., Tallahassee, FL, 32301 or online at firstprespreschool.net/contributions.html.
