“ Dear Letha, Rene', and Carol Lynn,

I am so sorry to learn of your loss. I did not know until Bro. Leon Roberts e-mailed me, remembering that Emma Lou and I were friends during the years I lived in Wakulla County. Emma Lou was a fine Christian lady, and a true friend. I cherished her friendship and admired her so much for her love for and devotion to her family, as well as her dedication to her job and sincerity in every walk of life. During the years after I moved to Virginia in 1981 we gradually lost touch with each other, but I never forgot her. I have thought of her so often and have such good memories of times we shared.

Just rest in the assurance that Earth's loss is Heaven's gain, and know that my thoughts and prayers are with each of you, that Jesus will comfort and strengthen you during this time of loss.

Sincerely,
