“ Dear Ruby Jean & Willie Iris - Just heard about Eva Mae's passing. Last time I visited Cuz, we had a ball talking about the good (& other) times we had growing up. We caught up on so many things. Remember the four of us snot-nosed girls running free in Chaires? I know Eva Mae, Aunt Kathleen, Uncle Neely, David & Michael are rejoicing together up in Heaven tonight. Her earthly death leaves such a loneliness in the lives of those left behind. The Bible assures us that God will wipe away our tears. I pray that the blessed Holy Spirit fill your soul at this time bringing a strength & comfort to you, her kids, grandkids & great-grandkids. I will truly miss mine & Eva Mae's visits, phone conversations, words of wisdom to each other & especially our laughter together. She was a sport & it takes one to know one! I will see you on Sat. Travel safely & know that Rex & I send our prayers and love to each of you. Call me when you get in town. Love Always, Doris
