

Eva Eugenia Draughon

November 30, 1927 - December 27, 2018

Eva Eugenia (Jean) Rowe Draughon, born to Nello and Reda Rowe November 30, 1927 passed away with her son and daughter by her side Thursday December 27, 2018. Eugenia was fortunate to live an amazing 91 years. She was born in Dublin, Georgia. Her family moved to Miami, Florida but returned to Dublin when she was a teenager. There she grew up with her two siblings, Wade and Gail.

For the past 67 years she lived in Tallahassee, there she and her husband, Winfred, raised two children, David and Becky. She loved to read and sail, was an avid traveler throughout the U.S. and Europe even celebrating her 90th birthday with her son, daughter and granddaughter in Maui. She was happiest playing with her great grandchildren and loved them and her grandchildren as much as their parents do.

Eugenia bore all with dignity, grace and a sense of humor. She is survived by her son, David Draughon and his wife Marta, a daughter, Becky Sikes and her husband Herb, sister, Gail Mitchell and her husband Norm, 7 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. It is almost unbearable for us to contemplate our life without her.

Graveside services will be held Monday January 14, 2018 at 11:00 AM at the Tallahassee National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family suggests a donation in her name to Camp Boggy Creek (www.boggycreek.org) in Eustis, Florida. Todd Wahlquist with Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the family with their arrangements.
