“ Uncle Tommy was my mom's brother and there are so many great memories of shared family get togethers, either for holidays or getting a bushel of oysters and shucking them in his front yard while Aunt Catherine and mama fixed sides and desserts. He loved God and He loved his family and will be greatly missed! RIP Uncle Tommy

Kim you have no idea how much it meant to all of us that you and Sean came to Dad's funeral. It was a long trip and we sincerely appreciated you being there. Hope we will see you again soon. Love you both.
