

Florence Lorraine Madsen Willmer

April 8, 1927 - December 12, 2021

Florence Lorraine Madsen Willmer known as “Lorraine” peacefully passed away in Naples, Florida on Sunday December 12, 2021. Born in Valley Stream, Long Island, New York to William Madsen Sr. and Florence Hufnagel on April 8, 1927, Lorraine and her family moved to West Palm Beach, Florida where she attended high school. She is preceded in passing by her husband of 69 years, Lester John Willmer, her daughter Lorriann B. Corry, her father and mother, and brother Billy Madsen Jr. Surviving is her son Jim, daughter-in-law Doris, and son-in-law Jack.

Her family was her greatest joy including her four surviving grandchildren who provided much love and laughter. She was always front and center for her grandchildren at all their important occasions, sporting events and special moments in their lives. The added sweetness to her life were her 13 great-grandchildren.

She will be dearly missed yet her joie de vivre, adventuresome spirit and caring heart will always live on in our memory.

A private family service will be held. Todd Wahlquist with Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the Willmer family with their arrangements.
