He loved flying his plane, fishing from his boat, and sitting on the porch at his cottage on the Ochlocknee Bay. “ I had the pleasure to work with Dick daily for several years on the construction of the Wright-Patterson Medical Center! I was the Resident Engineer for the Army Corps of Engineers and Dick was our on-site A/E Representative und contract with Sherlock, Smith, & Adams. Dick was key to successful project completion and daily resolution of design and construction issues! I highly regarded Dick's calm demeanor and mature judgement! I regarded him as a friend and highly professional work mate on this challenging project completed in 1989. He was a great architect, engineer, and team leader! I am glad to see the lord blessed him with a long life and loving family. May he Rest In Peace.
