“ We are so sad to hear about our dearest Kay I had been trying to reach her calling and not getting through and for some reason missed her obituary until now. We last seen each other in May 2017 when we met for a lunch date. I'm very sorry for the late condolences to her family and friends. Love Corie, Tony & Corton Jones

“ I was so sad to learn of Kays passing. I will truly miss her flying by in her black sports car with tweety holding on for dear life. She seemed to enjoy life and going and doing all the time. Kay always would stop by the house to hug my neice and me, whenever she would see us outside. She was a "hoot" and to those of us who knew her, we will miss her in our neighborhood. Christmas won't be the same without the red lights on her house. This past year or two had been tough for Kay, but she always kept on going with a positive attitude and a "gung ho" spirit. I loved her and am glad her suffering is over with. I will always remember her in my heart!

I'm so sad to learn that she passed away I have been trying to reach her and I don't know how I have not heard until now I just decided to search her name and see if something showed up because it wasn't like her to go this long without contacting me I will miss her sweet sweet spirit and treasure our last lunch together In May 2017. “ Dear Felicia and Mitch,
Our family offers our deepest sympathies to you and your children during this tender time. We were blessed to call your mother our friend.

Sincerely,
Randy, Pilar and Dean Delp

I've been missing Kay. She was in my life many years, and still is, in my heart. I remember the day we met, and the day a nurse called to say Kay wanted to see me. "Come now."

“ Kay was such a sweet neighbor to all of us who were blessed enough to live on her street. She frequently stopped to "check on me" when she knew my husband wasn't home. She always decorated her house for the holidays and kept us all feeling festive!! She will be sorely missed by ALL of us that know her and have been blessed by her sweet spirit. We sure loved you, Kay. Praying for all those you left behind.
