Virginia Simpson, (Jenny) age 90, passed away peacefully at home September 05, 2021, due to a short illness. She was born September 06, 1930, in Tallahassee, Florida to Nathaniel and Myrtle Simpson.

Jenny loved her family. She worked tirelessly to bring her family together and she never met a child she did not love. She worked hard to spread the ministry of her church. If you ever visited her, you would receive a "Sunday Law Book", that was her way of getting the message to others.

She had many nephews and nieces. All of these she loved and touched deeply. Any donations can be made to Seventh Day Adventist Church.

It can be hard to find the right words to pay tribute to the woman my mother who raised and cared for you. But just like they tucked you in and told you bedtime stories or we were off to other countries since she was a military wife with children so I have the opportunity to tell her story. It would also be wrong to say that my mother lost her battle because she never stopped fighting. No matter how sick she was, she was always determined. When anyone else would have broken, my mother stayed strong. Through her, we know what resilience and perseverance truly look like. There was no quit in my mom. How do you sum up a lifetime of memories and accomplishments in a short paragraph I can't, my mom had an uncanny ability to find the silver tread in life and to those she was with, she loved to hear about the good times, laughter her pleasant personality was contagious to everyone she met or was with. I know when the time came, she was reaching out to her father my grandfather who came to get her to take her homes in this alone I myself find peace that she is now home and free running through flowers fields as a child. Love you forever Mom, you are always in my heart. Donnagale

“ *Dear Mom,
I never could imagine the pain. I thought I was prepared for this moment, I am not. I hope one day to join you in Heaven. My only constellation, is you are not longer in pain. As we have talked many days about this day. I hope I can continue on earth as you ahve prayed for many a day.*

Love Carolyn
