Tribute Wall

“ Frank is someone that I had the great privilege of working with professionally for many years while he was at FES and afterwards. He helped me while I served on the FES board and then we worked together even closer during my presidency. He was a true friend and will be greatly missed. I was so incredibly sad to hear of his passing. The world has been deprived of a great man far too early in his life. He was always focused on others, operating with integrity and standing on his principals no matter the consequences. I know that he is with our Lord, and I will continue to pray for him and the entire family. Deepest sympathies.

“ I did not know Frank. But I knew his father, Hurley, and his namesake Frank Hazelton, who were co-owners of WTNT Radio in the 1960's. My first radio job was at the station, located in the basement of the old Duval Hotel. Frank and Hurley were good men. Young Frank was a credit to both of them.
