Frankie Ann Johnston of Tallahassee, a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend, peacefully passed away on Tuesday, October 24th, 2023 at the age of 91. Her journey was marked by love, resilience and unwavering faith. Her memory will forever reside in our hearts.

Frankie found joy in tending to her yard and garden, which she continued to do until she was 90 years old. Her green thumb brought life and beauty to her surroundings. She was a faithful member of Bible Believers Church, finding solace and strength in her spiritual beliefs.

Frankie is survived by her two loving sons, Keith (Gerrie) Allen and Dennis Allen, and her two granddaughters, Carrie (Morris) Pigott and Tracey (Charlie) Holleman. Her love extended to her great-grandchildren, Crystal Owens, Erin (AJ) Riley, Jacob Riley, Braeden Pigott, and Cooper Holleman, as well as many others who affectionately knew her as "Granny Frankie" and "Aunt Frankie."

Frankie was a dear sister as well. She is survived by her sister, Lindia

Mrs. Frankie was a blessing to all of us at Bible Believers Fellowship. Our grandson Mason loved saving her a parking place up front. She was a faithful member and will be missed. Our condolences and prayers for all of her precious family. ❤️ Linda and Pastor Dennis Young of BBF Church
