I have fond memories of Marsha when we danced together at Jacksonville Ballet Theater back in 1970s-1980s. She was such a kind, gentle soul. She always worked hard and did it with her beautiful smile. I will always remember her fondly.

I know we weren't close, Marsha, but I am truly saddened by your passing...you'll always be in my thoughts as the years go by, and I will remember the good times we did have with each other...I love you sis, and hope you're free of pain now. RIP

The last time I saw Marsha was at the reunion for Jacksonville Ballet Theatre. Marsha always displayed the Fruit of the Spirit. She was such a lovely person and made those around her feel a sense of serenity
