

George Edward Link

February 26, 1926 - December 23, 2011

George Edward Link, 85, of Tallahassee, passed away Friday, December 23, 2011 at Capital Regional Medical Center.

A private service has been held. Gifts in memory of Mr. Link may be made to a favorite charity.

A native of Springfield, New York, he moved to Tallahassee from Atlanta in 1955. He was in the flooring and carpeting business and operated George E. Link Sales for many years. He was an avid Seminole "Super Fan" and a member of the Seminole Boosters. Mr. Link was a former member of the Capital City Country Club and served as an official PGA Scorekeeper. An Army veteran of World War II, he served in Europe with the 325th Glider Infantry, Company D.

He is survived by three sons, Steve Link, George D. Link (Lucy) and Alan Link (Kim), all of Tallahassee; two daughters, Terrie Link Lee (Charles) of Gulfport, FL and Sheryl Link of Tallahassee; fourteen grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Mr. Link was preceded in death by his wife, Clara Jayne Link.