“ Lee, you were with us from the beginning and were always counted on for your ability to make an old rifle serviceable. Know that when we look, you will always be there. Heaven must have needed another good custodian to handle their arms, say hello to St. Michael for me . . . save me a place at your side.

“ I served with George at the Tallahassee Police Department. Later, our paths crossed several times at funerals where he was a member of the Big Bend Honor Guard. He, along with others, brought honor and comfort to a lot of families.

“ Lee you will be missed but you won't be forgotten. I was always impressed by your sincere and heartfelt words to the families at the TNC ceremonies.
