“ I am very sorry for your loss; please accept my deepest sympathy. While you are grieving the passing of your loved one; I hope you will find comfort in the blessings that will take place, when God's Kingdom comes (Matthew 6:10). Death will be no more(Isaiah 25:8) and no family will have to say good-bye to their loved ones, because Jesus promise there will be a resurrection (Acts 15:24)for those who are now sleeping in death, being restored back to life on the new Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed time unfolds, may GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. One encouraging thought you might find comforting in this difficult time is found at John 5:28, 29. “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” God gives us this beautiful hope that he will soon resurrect our dead loved ones and we can see them again.
