“ Gloria and I had a falling out a couple of years back and didn't speak for several months. She broke the ice on my birthday February 15th with a morning telephone call singing me Happy Birthday. Gloria, I will miss that call for the rest of my life. Miss your daily morning call, even if it was 6:00 am, due to the crazy time change. Until we meet again baby sister. Love and miss you so much, Blanche

“ Mom & Gloria were best friends and so her passing is still incredibly surreal for us. She was witty, unfiltered, and funny as hell. She had a heart of gold I'm sure, because otherwise Mom would not have bonded so closely. Gloria loved life--all of it and often times to a fault. When she was with her grandbabies, she beamed. When she was without them, all she could do is talk about them. She was able to be her true self--a big kid at heart when she played with them and it was so nice to see that kind of love really. Gloria leaves us with lots of great memories. The emptiness we feel now and in the days, months and years to come, we will just have to fill the void with those precious memories.

Sending all our love~

“ Gloria always lit up the room when she walked in. She had an infectious smile and way about her that brought instant joy. The world needed more of the color that Gloria brought to it.....I guess God needed her more. She will be sorely missed. RIP.

“ The world has lost an amazing women, friend and a mother to Heather that this tribute is really going to be hard for me. So I will begin: When I first met Gloria I instantly loved her. I think It was an engagement party for Heather and my nephew Dan at that time. That was some great times. The most memorable moments she and I shared was at Camp Bluebird in Fla. We talked about everything including our families, our children and mainly our life and what the future lies for us ahead. You see Gloria was not only a good friend or step sister (we used to call ourselves that L.O.L) but she was my rock that I could bounce off of, during my recovering stage from cancer. She was crazy and funny and the life of any party. She could always make you laugh unconditionally being around her. I already truly miss that!! Gloria I miss you already and love you more than..... and I know your heather will make you very proud. God bless you in your new address of heaven and I'll see you when I get up there.

*Love always and forever

“ My mom left us too soon and she is very, very missed and loved. She had 2 grandchildren whom she adored, Aidan (3) and Cameron Elena (1). We made a lifetime of memories together, first as mother and daughter and then as grandma and mama. She was the first person Cameron held her arms out to and walked, taking her first steps about 2 weeks ago. She played with Aidan just like she was a little kid, too and he loved it. She always talked about the circle of life, and she believed and always told me that she did not fear death since she would see her mother Millie again in heaven. Although there will never be another hug, another touch or another talk, she will always be with us, in our hearts, minds, memories, soul and body. When I look at my hands, I see her hands. When I look at my life, I see her there. Although we were shaped into two different quilts, we were cut from the same cloth. You only get one mother in this life - I appreciate the patchwork quilt of her life as she finds peace in heaven. I love you so much.
