“ Kay-

Thinking of just seeing you and talking to you at Bobby's visitation in Louisville and how in a blink of an eye the pages of your life are on to another chapter. Oh how I know you know. Just wanted to let you know we are thinking of you as you go through this and hoping it doesn't hurt that beautiful smile and wonderful personality you have. It is always a joy to run into you. Keeping you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Hal, I am certain that your Dad must have been a very special person, and am so sorry I never had the chance to meet him. Judging by what I know about you, I know that your Dad was outgoing, happy to be alive, a friend to all and cherished by those who knew him. God bless you and your family. Betsy

“ I am so sorry to hear of Hal's passing. It was a shock. Your trips to Illinois usually meant a Baker family reunion. It touched mom (and me) how you always made time to see her when you were here. Hal will be sadly missed. Kay you are welcome to come visit anytime. There will always be a place for you to stay. Take care of yourself and hope to see you again. Thoughts and prayers to you and your family. Love your cousin Myrna

“ The measure of a man: Not "how did he die" but "how did he live." Not "what did he gain" but "what did he give." These are the units to measure the worth of a man, as a man, regardless of birth."
