“ Susan, Jeanne, Phil, Mark, and Julie,

Your dad was such a nice man. I have sweet memories of visiting you in Godfrey while our parents played cards. Hopefully, he finds them in heaven playing bridge and in need of another player. Big family reunion taking place upstairs. God bless you all.

*Love always,

“ My heartfelt sympathy to Shirley and family. I remember when the Tauls moved to Tallahassee from Illinois and lived next door to us. We shared a lot of good times with them The years have melted away and so much has changed. May good memories sustain you during these difficult days. Rest in peace, Harold.
