“ Nita was a Christian everyday of the week. I believe if you knew her you loved her. Nita was a true Bible student, she taught her children the word of God. I know this, because I taught them in Sunday School, and they had learned at their Mothers knee. They already knew The Word of God, they had been taught at home by the best. Their momma, Nita Messer, our friend. She will be missed, her sweet Spirit, her warm smile , the sound of her I love you, all this will be missed, Nita we loved you

“ Nita was one of the sweetest people I have ever known. I remember as a teenager or before that really, going to her house and she would let myself and the other girls in the neighborhood push Ricky in the stroller. I'm pretty sure the baby was Ricky. She was one great lady.

“ Nita was a second Mother to me. She shared Lisa as a best friend with me and her family. I had never been around a family who ate dinner together and spent time together, until I met Lisa and her family. I was fortunate enough to tell Nita how much i loved her and was so thankful for her and her love, before she passed. She is truly in God's arms today....Love you Lisa...and family.
