“Dad I want you to know I will deeply miss you the past 9months with you I will cherish the rest of my life. You have taught me a lot and I will be able to use that in my future. Dad I hated to see all you had to go through, but I did my best to take care of you and would of loved more time with you because of all the time your children lost with you over the last 28yrs but your at piece now dad, you can relax not worry no more. You have been the best dad ever that I could of ever asked for, but my promise to you is I will restart school in January and I will finish and graduate for you. I love you and will miss you "MY DADDY"

*We will never say goodbye to you Dad because we knew this is not the end for us to see each other.
We will only be going to a place were there's no pain nor suffering.
We are happy for you, for you will be with God.
For now we need to go our separate ways.
We will remember how your arms held us and gave us strength.
You were always there to listen, love and defend us in everything.
You were our very best friend.
In our triumphs you were always proud.
We are very grateful and proud to call you our dad.
Here deep inside our hearts you will always be.
We would give up everything just to give you one more hug.
If we could just turn back the time we would never let you go.
Just like the rain; tears fell down from our eyes, We couldn't speak for a while.
Thank you so much Dad...
For understanding, listening, caring, and loving us your whole life.
The greatest gift God gave us was You...Our Dad
It's difficult to let you go but we must...
We must return the gift God gave us...
Till then...
We will see you in Heaven....*

He will never be forgotten , he was like my second father. Uncle Holice was always eager to give his wisdom and advice and never was a judge mental person. I learned a lot about life and respect from him. I loved him dearly and must admit he was my favorite uncle . He will be missed by me and many others. He lived by example and as kind to everyone
