

Hollie Louise Skelton Sanders

October 30, 1960 - October 2, 2014

Hollie Louise Skelton Sanders, 53, loving wife, mother, daughter, and sister, passed away October 2, 2014 after a lengthy fight with colon cancer. Hollie was born October 30, 1960 and was a lifelong resident of Tallahassee. Hollie was an alumna of Maclay School, Auburn University, and Florida State University. She left the Department of Insurance to pursue her dream job, full-time mother, a position which she excelled. Hollie was active in St. Mary's Circle, Junior League, Tallahassee Cotillion, Violet Garden Circle, and St. John's Episcopal Church. Her volunteer work included The American Cancer Society Garden Party, Maclay School, and numerous other organizations. She is survived by her husband Guy Lindsey, daughter Lindsey Andrick, sister Susan Skelton and Sarah Skelton Rich (Jeff), nephews Chase, Ben, Connor, Jack, and Ty, parents Benson and Betty Ann Skelton. Family and friends are invited to a grave-side service 11:00am Monday, October 6, 2014 at Roselawn Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to Tallahassee Cancer Center (1775 One Healing Pl, Tallahassee, FL 32308) or St. John's Episcopal Church (211 N Monroe St, Tallahassee, FL 32301). “ My condolences to Hollie's immediate family and the Skelton family on Hollie's passing, far too young. I can just imagine her impish smile (she looks beautiful in this picture) as I remember her from those lazy St Teresa times. Hoping for peace and some comfort in memories for your family in the days to come.

“ Grief can affect us in various ways, but for many the overriding feeling is one of intense emotional pain. The grief can be intense. Yet grief is said to be a necessary part of the healing process and of learning to adapt to the new situation. One thing, though, seems to hold true: Repressing your grief can be harmful mentally, emotionally, and physically. Many bereaved ones have found that talking can be a helpful release. Paulo, who lost his mother, says: “One of the things that has helped me is to talk about my mother.” So talking about your feelings to a trusted friend can bring a measure of relief. (Proverbs 17:17)
