“ you'll forever be my bestfriend. I love you to heaven and back. I remember many birthdays with you and cards you would send and the phone calls that would make my birthdays the best anyone could have. Not being able to talk to you has been rough didnt even think about there being a time like this and not getting a card or getting to call you and tell you how my day went. Just all so different. But I have memories that can last a lifetime. I love you so much granny nobody will ever replace you. I can't wait to see you again.

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. There is no worse pain than losing a loved one to death, I also want to share with you the hope that we find in the following Bible verses. God promise in Isaiah 25:8 these comforting word, “He will swallow up death for ever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. The Bible also says that God will wipe away the tears from our eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away (Rev. 21:3, 4). What great joy to be able to live forever without the fear of losing our loved ones again. It shall be as he has promise, for God can not lie, Titus 1:2.
