

Jack M. Robbins Jr.

April 7, 1935 - November 12, 2020

Jack M. Robbins, Jr. passed away peacefully in his home on November 12th, 2020, after a lengthy battle with cancer. Jack is preceded in death by his parents Jack Robbins, Sr. and Anna Robbins; his brother Paul Robbins and sister Betty Johnson; his grandsons Camden Robbins and Jacob Pantaleon. He is survived by his sisters Margaret Malone (husband Richard) and Celeste Garner (husband Norman); sister-in-law Ann Robbins; his children Eric Robbins (wife Debi), Michele Hall (husband Tom), Leigh Ann Pantaleon (husband Chris); his grandchildren Matt Robbins (wife Samantha), Mike Robbins (wife Christina), Jeff Robbins, Cortland Pantaleon (wife Sabrina), Hanna Robbins, Cassidy Chomat (husband Walker), Owen Pantaleon, and Olivia Robbins; his great-grandchildren Greilyn Robbins, Kaylee Robbins, Asher Robbins, Kylie Robbins, Chloe Robbins, and Cayson Chomat.

After graduating from high school in 1953, Jack served four years in the U.S. Air Force before moving to Tallahassee in 1959 to attend Florida State University. He landed a short-term position with the State of Florida before eventually being hired by Pitney Bowes, Inc. He was married in 1961 and became a father in 1964. Following his retirement from Pitney Bowes after 30 years, Jack went to work for Capital City Bank, from which he retired after 10 years.

Jack loved spending time with his family, especially when there was something to celebrate and something to eat. He also loved traveling to get there, logging many, many miles out on the open road, all while contemplating the destination and good times ahead. Years ago Jack earned the nickname "Smiling Jack" because of his big warm smile. This fittingly became his CB handle during the 70s. Everyone who had the pleasure of knowing Jack, whether for a short while or for a lifetime, was impressed with his friendly demeanor and sense of humor. When his children were young, all their friends considered Jack the "neighborhood dad." He will be missed by all who knew him.

“ I remember the first time I met Jack. His smile was as bright as the sun. He was a wonderful, caring and compassionate man. His family was the love of his life. Even after losing my husband and his beloved brother, Paul, Jack continued to treat me as a sister and I will be forever grateful for his love. Rest in peace my wonderful brother-in-law.

“ To my Robbins cousins:

I am so very sorry for the loss of your beloved dad. I know you all were his greatest blessings and achievement. The many Thanksgiving Days we spent together as children become even more meaningful to me as the years go by. Our family and family ties are always our best memories, and your dad was always such a big part of that for me. I send each of you my sincerest condolences and prayers for peace as you lay this precious man to rest.

*With love,

“ Jack was an amazing big brother in so many ways! He was the first of us 5 siblings and was Mothers right hand man since our dad was in the NAVY for 27yrs and absent from home a lot. Jack was responsible to see that we three girls were safe and behaving ourselves when Mother was busy or away. Poor Jack! He was the Best Big Brother Ever! Paul joined our family in 1949. We all spoiled him rotten and Jack was like a Father to him when Dad was gone. We shall miss you so much Jack! RIP 🙏❤️🙏

“ Jack was my Big brother and was always sweet to all of us girls and though I lived way up in Virginia he didn't have a problem in getting on the road to come visit me. I loved having him around. He was just a good person and loved everyone. I always looked up to him when I was a little girl too and He had a really neat car and took us for rides in the 1950's in Seattle. Jack also When I got married in Nov of 1962 in Florida, My Dad wasn't able to be there so Jack gave me away. I Loved him very much and will Miss him greatly. Celeste Robbins Garner.
