“ My Dear friend James, I'm deeply sorry for your loss. Look into your heart and rejoice for all those wonderful memories and times you two shared, He may be gone from this world but his presence remains in your heart and in the hearts of his family and friends. Just look up at the sky and smile his in a better place watching you with a warming smile and a loving embrace.

“ Oh! Dad, where do I begin? Years of laughter, warmth, tears, and happy times followed by years of hardship, pain, and struggle. I think about you every day, and I've dreamt about you every night since you passed. It took me a long time to understand some things but seeing you in the hospital and having you squeeze my hand to let me know you heard me; well, it really made everything very clear. You were the silliest, most stubborn, hardheaded, craziest hillbilly man I have ever known. You were a hell of a provider, and a good father. You gave me the tough love I needed in order to be able to take care of myself, but I never understood it until now. I want you to know that I love you, Jessica loves, and your grandchildren love you. Bevis Funeral Home gave you a wonderful burial that you would have been very proud of. Please look over us, and keep us from doing crazy things. We love you daddy, and you'll always be in our hearts.
