December 3, 1933 - February 16, 2022

James Hiram Arthmann, age 88, passed away on February 16, 2022 in Tallahassee, Florida where he spent the last 12 years of his life. He was born in Keosauqua, Iowa to parents William Fredrick Arthmann and Katherine Esther Gilbert Arthmann on December 3, 1933. James joined the United States Navy in 1952 and served honorably for over 20 years prior to retirement as a Chief Hospital Corpsman.

James married his sweetheart Violet Carolyn Buchanan in 1968 shortly before she was honorably discharged from the Navy herself. They then began a beautiful family – one of his proudest accomplishments.

After James' retirement from the Navy, he spent his free time woodworking, playing cribbage and solving puzzles. He also had a deep, lifelong appreciation for reading. To support his 5 books a week reading habit library trips were frequent, and he often insisted on having his children in tow. James also attended Tallahassee Heights United Methodist Church with his wife, Violet.

Survivors include his loving wife of over 50 years, Violet Carolyn Arthmann; children David Arthmann (Yaite), James "Jamie" Arthmann and Dawn Arthmann; grandchildren Jason Arthmann and Sapphire Arthmann; sister Janie Ann Long as well as a host of extended family members who will remember him fondly. James was preceded by his parents and his brother, William Arthmann.
