

James Allen Marple

September 20, 1933 - September 13, 2015

James Allen Marple 81, died on September 13, 2015 at Tallahassee Memorial Hospital, due to complications of Lymphoma Cancer and heart failure.

Born on September 20, 1933, in West Virginia, he spent most of his life in Ohio. After getting his degree in Accounting at Akron University, he spent 10 years at City Loan then went on to manage hotels.

He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Ruth, sons, Terry of Utah and Mark (Tracy and grandson, Logan) of Tallahassee and also grandson, James of New Jersey. Jim's death was preceded by youngest son, Scott A. Marple on May 1, 2010 (AZ).

James also leaves granddaughters, Ryanna (David, Jordon and Alexis) of Homosassa, FL and Trista (Paul) of Columbus, OH. He also leaves many beloved relatives who cherished their relationship with a great man.

There will be a dual ceremony with inurnment of ashes at Greenlawn Memorial Park in Akron, OH on Saturday, October 3, 2015 at 10:00 am at the Office Chapel located at the cemetery.