

James Thornwell McLees

June 10, 1929 - July 14, 2022

James Thornwell McLees (went by “Mac”) passed away on July 14, 2022 in his apartment at the Grove at Canopy in Tallahassee, Florida. Mac was born on June 10, 1929 in Savannah, Georgia to James Abney McLees and Lilly Mae McLees.

Mac took after his father and was a railroad man all his life, working for Seaboard Airline Railroad through the time it was CSX.

He was a life-long Presbyterian who loved the Lord and served in various Presbyterian churches throughout his adulthood as a deacon and an elder.

Mac leaves behind his wife of 72 years, Jean Lane McLees; two twin daughters Linda McLees Valenzuela (husband, Jim Valenzuela) and Donna McLees Weisman (husband, Rodney Weisman) as well as four grandchildren: Amy Valenzuela Ziemke, Joshua Valenzuela, Gentry Weisman Holbrook, and Micah Weisman. Mac was preceded by his parents and his brother, Jack McLees.

Mac was a loving, caring, hard-working man who would give the shirt off his back to others. But most importantly, he loved the Lord and my mother ‘til the day he died.

Funeral services will be held at Fellowship Presbyterian Church of Tallahassee on Tuesday, July 19, 2022 at 2:00 p.m.

Interment will be held at West View Cemetery of Monticello, Georgia on Wednesday, July 20, 2022.
