

James "Jim" Gilchrist Gramling

December 28, 1951 - August 21, 2012

James "Jim" Gilchrist Gramling, Sr, 60, of Tallahassee, passed away on Tuesday, August 21, 2012. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and dear friend to many. Preceded in death by his parents Bob and Anne Gramling, and father-in-law James Alford. Survived by Patricia, his loving wife of 38 years; his daughter Mary and partner Michelle; his son James Jr., and wife Melissa and his beloved granddaughter Ava; his brother Bob Jr, and sister Mary Baine Spooner; and mother-in-law Mary Alford; and an infinite number of family and close friends. Known to family and friends as Jim, he was a retired chemist for the Department of Agriculture. Jim spent his free time boating and fishing with his best friends, playing with his granddaughter Ava, or tending to his garden and Camelias, which was also a passion of his beloved father. He was a talented craftsman and an inventor of many things. Jim was an inspiration and constant source of strength to his family. His many years of hard work and his love and dedication to his family is what embodied this amazing man who will be dearly missed. A service celebrating his life will be held at Fellowship Presbyterian, 3150 Shamrock St South on Friday, August 24, 2012 at 4:00pm. In lieu of flowers, donations, or memorials, the family requests that you spend quality time with those you love and cherish. Bevis Funeral Home, (850)385-2193, www.bevisfh.com, is in charge of the arrangements.
