“ You were much more than just my life long best friend. You became a brother to me. I'll always treasure the memories of the good times we had squirrel huntin' in your grandpas' old feild,church and c.a.'s,"His People" and winning that district first place award,all the camping trips or fsu football games in the old campbell stadium,and so many more. A lifetime filled with laughter and a few tears along the way. The birth of your twin girls,and,watching over your family while you worked offshore. I could go on and on. Throughout it all,we always were there for each other. Rest now and be at peace. I will never ever forget you,Jim. I love ya my brother.
