“ My memories of Mrs copper bring a smile to my face and the fact that she's gone tears to my eyes. I loved her just like my own mother. I know the years separated us, all of us friends that used to run wild at Turtle Lake Apartments. She was always watching over us. Keeping us safe and giving us a few words of wisdom along the way. She was a beautiful soul, patient and loving with a great sense of humor. I'm sad to see her go but I'm at peace because I know she'll always be smiling down and watching over all of us kids. John and Corey I love you so much and I'm so sorry for this.
